

Title of Motion Picture

Day by Day in Germany

Produced and Manufactured by
PATHE EXCHANGE, Inc.
NEW YORK, N. Y.

Copyrighted

©CLM 22620

MAR 22 1923

MAR 22 1923

©CLM 2262 C

THE TABLE OF
~~THE STUBBORN~~
DAY BY DAY - IN EVERY WAY!

Henry Cat is a great disciple of the ~~Stubborn~~ Theory "Day by day in every way,

I am getting better and better." He goes to the chicken house and practices on Henrietta Hen who seems to have tired of egg laying. Henry shows her a picture of an egg and recites the magic formula, "Day by day in every way I'm laying better and better." After a few minutes concentration, Henrietta lays a full dozen eggs. Henry picks up his cure book and suit case and goes out for a walk. He comes upon little Milton Mouse vainly trying to grow some plants in flower pots. Henry utters the magic words and immediately a gigantic plant grows out of one of the pots. Full bunches of bananas, a string of alarm clocks, a keg of beer and scores of other things grew upon the plant. Henry continues on his travels. He hears loud barking of hounds and Robert Rabbit runs up to him and falls exhausted. The Cat ~~quickly~~ quickly sizes up the situation and exerts his great influence upon the Rabbit. By the time the hounds reach the spot, Robert has sufficiently concentrated upon strength to be able to deliver well directed blows. He rushes at the hounds and sends them terror-stricken down the road.

Now, Farmer Al Falfa is a victim of the gout and chills. He sits by the window all bundled up in blankets, with his feet in a tub of water. His sneezing reaches the ears of Henry Cat. So the feline doctor figures on getting the Farmer as a patient. Henry goes straight to the Al Falfa homestead and tells the Farmer that he can cure him. Al is a very stubborn old fellow and after reading Henry's book throws it at the Cat. "It's all bunk", he declares. Henry is undaunted and decides to convince Al that his mental method is a good cure. Three mice on crutches come along and Henry exerts his influence upon them. The little rodents throw down their crutches and turn somersaults. Al has been peeking out all the while and is surprised at the cure. A monkey who has not walked in twenty years comes along in a wheel chair. Henry decides to further show Al so he recites the formula to the Monkey. In a few moments the animal jumps out of his chair and runs away over the hill. Farmer Al comes out and tells Henry that he can not cure him. Al contends that only travel will cure him. Henry tells Al to sit in a little wagon and then the Cat doctor taps the stubborn Farmer on the head with a hammer. Al goes upon a mental trip, rising up into the heavens. He finds himself upon a skyrocket and shoots around and through the planets. He soon falls to the world and lands a-splash in the ocean off the coast of the United States. He sinks to the bottom and lands in a sunken row boat. The boat rises to the surface and Al is tossed high by the stormy waves. One big wave hurls him upon a high point of land and the waves take the form of hands and try to grab him. Then a beautiful mermaid is washed into his arms and Al is overjoyed. But at this moment he comes out of his swoon and finds himself embracing Henry Cat. Al is enraged and chases Henry away. Thus, by making an effort to walk and then run Al over comes his ailment. And we realize the truth of the moral: "No one is mighty but he who conquers himself".

This document is from the Library of Congress
“Motion Picture Copyright Descriptions Collection,
1912-1977”

Collections Summary:

The Motion Picture Copyright Descriptions Collection, Class L and Class M, consists of forms, abstracts, plot summaries, dialogue and continuity scripts, press kits, publicity and other material, submitted for the purpose of enabling descriptive cataloging for motion picture photoplays registered with the United States Copyright Office under Class L and Class M from 1912-1977.

Class L Finding Aid:

<https://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mbrsmi/eadmbrsmi.mi020004>

Class M Finding Aid:

<https://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mbrsmi/eadmbrsmi.mi021002>

National Audio-Visual Conservation Center
The Library of Congress